BALLOON GAME PRIZES:

Burdock & Co $300 Gift Card

Embodying what it truly means to represent the flavours of your geography, chef and owner Andrea Carlson has made it her mission to grace Vancouver's Mount Pleasant neighbourhood with some of the best dishes you'll ever taste. Having earned a Michelin Star in 2022, Carlson plates up a "natural abundance of ingredients cared for by growers, farmers and foragers" and this is your chance to take a bite!

Burgoo $50 Gift Card

The eagle eyed among you will have noticed that this tavern of deliciousness is mere meters from the Lyceum's front door. It's safe to say that if this were a scratch and sniff brochure, you'd be swept off your feet by the warm notes of Burgoo's famous biscuits (both golden brown and pillowy soft), soups and gooey cheese grillers. This comfort food community staple has been going strong since 2001, and there's no need to guess why. If you've ever tasted their food, you'll know that it could warm even the coldest of hearts. One lucky winner will be able to enjoy a memorable meal with a special someone of their choice.

Ooh La La $50 Gift Card

Joining the block at almost the same time, we have been strong supporters of Oohlala Donuts...children often attach a trip to this delicious paradise when they are coming for their weekly Lyceum jaunt. A family owned and operated cafe, using locally sourced ingredients, you'll be dazzled at the array of flavours they can tempt you with every day. From apple crumble to cinnamon crunch, and beyond, once you've fallen down the donut hole, there's just no saving you.

Frongly $50 Gift Card

Welcoming even the most hesitant of plant parents, Frondly is another one of the Lyceum's neighbours who have generously donated to this year's auction. Professing to be for both "plant lovers AND killers", they can almost guarantee that you'll be able to watch your babies grow taller than you ever thought possible. Make sure you're in the game to take your green fingered outlook from survive to thrive!

Catimini Paris

If your child is already showing a flair for fashion, then you'll want to snap up at least one (if not both) of these gift cards from Catimini Paris. Located in the heart of Kerrisdale, this boutique kids clothing store started in France has now expanded to over 40 countries worldwide. Specializing in fashion-forward designs, it encompasses the most fun elements of self-expression

And a special thank you to Mark Gervin!

Each year Mark supports the Lyceum by purchasing gift cards from his favourite restaurants, and gifting them as prizes for our games. This local criminal defence lawyer has a soft spot for organizations that inspire creativity, social responsibility, and literary scholarship in today's youth. This year he has chosen to support Bar Gobo and Burdock & Co. as he simultaneously supports the Lyceum.
