

Thank You

DOOR PRIZE DONORS:

Kozy Kermodes $25

One glance at their website and you'll be totally smitten with Kozy Kermodes family friendly loungewear. Perfect for any time of the year, their spell binding designs are adorable enough that even if you buy them as a gift, you'll find them difficult to give up.

Little Treasures $20

It's no secret that Vancouver is nicknamed Raincover, even fleeting visitors could tell you that?! For those of us who live here, it can sometimes get us down, but for occasions when you just want to dance in the rain (or snow), there's Little Treasure's. With an array of seasonal outerwear for children, there's no stopping your little one from jumping into those ever enticing puddles.

Rain or Shine Ice Cream $20

You may not have seen the inconspicuous store front nestled on bustling 4th avenue, but we can almost guarantee that you'll have seen the line spanning several blocks. With the most delectable flavours, Rain or Shine never fails to bring a smile to your face, no matter the weather.

Earnest Ice Cream $25

You can't buy happiness, but you can buy ice cream, which is pretty much the same thing! Head on over to Earnest Ice Cream with this gift certificate for $25 of joy.

Bon Macaron $25

With a roster of 50 flavours, even the most seasoned sweet tooth will be utterly enthralled with the selection at Bon Macaron. Ranging from the truly unique notes of white truffle and sea salt, gouda, chives, and sake to the confectionary classics of tiramisu and creme brulee, you'll never be stuck for choice. Born from a love of the purest French patisserie, two friends saw a gap in the market on the West Coast of Canada. With a $25 gift card, you'll be able to taste the passion for these flavourful and weightless delectables for yourself.

Branches & Knots $20

A local gem nestled in the heart of Kitsilano, Branches & Knots specializes in Japanese, European and Canadian fashion and accessories. Cultivating a sense of whimsy and play, they maintain the feeling that clothing should be fun – an expression of ourselves that we are able to play with and reinvent time and time again. Take this as a sign to treat yourself to that beautifully knitted sweater or those supple leather boots... really, whatever your heart desires.

Dilly Dally $30

It'll be difficult not to keep this one to yourself. The second you step inside, you won't be able to leave without one (or many) of Dilly Dally's creative delights. Use this to treat yourself, or your child, or as the impetus to finally get that gift you've been searching for all along